Wildlife Concert in the Forêt Montmorency

These 90-minute concerts are musical interpretations of nature in order to honour the life and sounds of the boreal forest at dusk! The musicians are installed in boats on Lake Bédard, offering exceptional acoustics, and are illuminated by the glow of the stars, the moon and candles. Within this natural setting of unimaginable beauty, audience is transported by the music that pays homage to wolves, moose, loons, sparrows, thrushes, the woods and much more! Attending one of these concerts is a unique experience not to be missed!

Saturday nights, July 27 to August 31st, 2019
8:00 p.m. to 10:45 p.m.

The activity includes:

- Reception in the auditorium: presentation of the musicians and explanation on how the concert will proceed.
- Round-trip shuttle from the pavilion to Lake Bédard.
